

Superloop is the ultimate challenger.

We're here to work harder than anyone else, innovating and disrupting to unleash possibilities for our customers

A modern internet co built for the cyber era.

Founded in 2014 and listed on the ASX in 2015, Superloop started out as an internet infrastructure company.

As we built out our network, we turned our attention to delivering the best possible customer experience in town. We saw a tired category and customers who viewed the internet simply as a utility and we knew we could fix that. We believe the internet is the most incredible innovation of our lifetimes. High speed, reliable internet unlocks opportunities to work, learn, and grow. It removes barriers, democratises information, and it creates endless possibilities
